International Calls

How to dial

You can dial direct to many countries if the first three digits of your telephone number are marked with an asterisk (*) on this page. (If your exchange is not listed, you can place a call to any international country by Dialing "0" Operator). You will be charged the dial-direct rate.

Dial-direct instructions:

- Dial the international Access Code 011
- The Country Code
- The City Code
- The local number
- The "#" button if you have a 12-button Touch-Tone Telephone. This will save you additional time.

For example:

To place a dialed direct call to London, England, here's what you would dial:

International Access Code	Country Code	City Code	local number
011+	44+	1+

Operator-assisted calls

To dial calls that are person-to-person, collect, calling Card or billed to a third number, use the International Access code "01" instead of "011".

Additional assistance or information

Dial "0" (Operator) if you need assistance:

1. To get telephone numbers.
2. For help on completing a call. If there is a language problem, the Operator will try to assist you.
3. To get credit if you reach a wrong number.
4. To get City Codes that are not listed.

Federal Excise Tax of 3% is added to all calls billed in the United States.

Holiday Rates do not apply to international calls.

To place a call to Alaska, the Bahamas, Bermuda, Canada, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands:

These calls can be dialed the same as long distance calls within the Continental United States. See the Long Distance Guide section in this guide.

The rate and discounts offered are determined at the originating point of any call.

How to use the "Country and City Codes" page

The bold number following the country name is the "Country Code."

Numbers beside cities are "City Codes."

For example: Cyprus 357 (+7/1)
Nicosia 2

- The Country Code is 357
- The City Code for Nicosia is 2

Several countries have more than one time zone. The time differences for these countries are based Upon the following cities: Sydney, Australia; Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Jakarta, Indonesia; Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia; and Mexico City, Mexico.
